

PROGRAM 12 October 2012:

09.30-09.50: Registration and coffee
09.50-10.00: Welcome
10.00-10.20: Comparative planning law research, Rachelle Alterman
10.20-10.40: Case study: Introduction and Portuguese point of view, Claudio Monteiro, Professor of Law, University of Lisbon
10.40-11.20: Case study: Stephan Mitschang and Tim Schwarz (Technische Universität Berlin)
11.20-11.35: Short break
11.35-12.15: Case study: Georgia Giannakourou (University of Athens) and Evangelia Balla (Council of Klimtologio S.A.)
12.15-13.00: Panel discussion – chair: Rachelle Alterman, co-founder Platform of Experts in Planning Law

13.00-14.00: Lunch

14.00-14.15: Introduction to the afternoon session, João Miranda, Professor of Law, University of Lisbon
14.15-14.40: Privatization of planning powers and urban infrastructures from a private investor perspective (Pedro Silveira, Grupo Sil)
14.40-15.05: Privatization of planning powers and urban infrastructures from a lawyer perspective (Pedro Siza Viera, Linklaters LLP)
15.05-15.30: Privatization of planning powers and urban infrastructures from a municipal perspective (Guilherme Pinto, Mayor of Matosinhos)
15.30-16.00: Discussion
16.00-16.15: Coffee
16.15-17.00: Short presentations (Tuulia Puustinen; Aalto University School of Engineering Finland)
17.00-17.30: Discussion and conclusions by Rachelle Alterman

PROGRAM 13 October 2012:

10.00-12.00: Tour of the new “Parque das Nações” (Nations Park) neighborhood, the former Lisbon 1998 Expo site
12.00-12.30: Planning and management of “Parque das Nações”. Informal briefing by Architect Manuel Salgado, Planner and Deputy Mayor of Lisbon
12.30-14.30: Lunch (on participants own costs)